C., on the 24th day of May next, at 10 o'clock a. m. The purpose of the convention is to elect delegates to the State Democratic convention to be held at Columbia, S. C., on the 27th day of May next. The purpose of the convention is to elect delegates to the State Democratic convention to be held at Columbia, S. C., on the 27th day of May next.

News Notes from the Kingdom.

Everything is quiet and serene in the Kingdom, so far as this writer knows. The health of this section is very good. Although President McKinley has been elected a solemn vow that he will not try to stop the Spaniards from butchering the Cubans, some of our people still talk about the war. War has been about all one could hear for the past few months. Recently heard one of our citizens say that he was ready and willing at any time to go to the front to fight for his country. He was talking about his old double-barreled shotgun and how he would use it to fight for his country. He was talking about his old double-barreled shotgun and how he would use it to fight for his country.

The Kingdom can boast of having more pretty girls to the square mile than any other section of the County. So come up, Mr. Editor, and get acquainted with them. The small grain crop is looking fine, and the farmers are rejoiced over the prospect of a good grain crop. The frost a few days ago played havoc with some of our early gardeners' vegetables.

Farm work has been progressing nicely for the last few days, consequently most of our farmers are about done planting cotton and melons. Mr. A. T. Presley still handles the varieties at our capital, (Spartanburg). He says that he is thinking of selling off his stock of goods this fall and moving out into the country. Mr. Will Riddison, who has been attending the Baltimore Medical College, has returned home to spend his vacation. Miss Louisa Owen, who has been on a visit to relatives in Pickens, has returned home.

Spring has arrived, and as the poet says, "The young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love." All vegetation seems to have put on new life and nature is filling the earth with gladness. Mr. Sam Tins is putting the work on his new mill, and it will not be long before he will again be ready to serve the public. Mr. Will Owen, of Pickens, was in our midst last Sunday. We think some one who lives a little less than five miles from Chapel attracts Will's attention.

We are heartily in sympathy with "Old Joe." It seems that he is having a pretty tough time "kicking and getting kicked." Although we have never experienced such, we presume that getting kicked out of bed is a bad thing.

We have preaching in the Kingdom nearly every Sunday. First Sunday is preaching day at Willis Chapel, second Sunday at Lebanon and Sharon, third Sunday at Corinth No. 2, fourth Sunday at Lebanon, Sharon and Six and Twenty. So you see, Mr. Editor, we are not lacking for good preaching.

The most of our people are looking forward to a big time at the Singing Convention, which meets at Lebanon on the first Sunday in May and Saturday before. Prof. J. H. Harbin and J. C. Lenderman will conduct an all-day singing at Willis Chapel on the third Sunday in May. These gentlemen are both excellent singers and those who attend may expect a rare treat. Everybody is invited to come and enjoy the day with us.

Some of the roads in this community are needing work very badly. In bad weather, in some places, they are almost impassable. Most of the Sunday Schools in this section are well attended.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Sanford Durham, on Sunday, April 10, by Notary Public J. A. Mullins, Mr. J. D. Martin and Miss Bettie Durham, all of this section.

Miss Mattie Davis, one of Anderson's most winsome young ladies, was in our community recently visiting the family of Mr. A. T. Presley. Some of our boys occasionally imbibe a little too freely in fire water. We think if these boys would only think for a moment of the spectacle they present when in that condition that they would give up the immoral habit. It is shameful and disgraceful for a person to be guilty of such conduct as some of our young "gentlemen" were guilty of a few Sundays ago. We think when a man under the influence of liquor goes to a church or a private residence and uses language which would make the demons of the very lowest class of huckster and cover their faces with shame to hear, or real good citizens labor on the public works of County or State would do them a great deal of good.

Miss Mollie Brooks, accompanied by her father, Mr. Edward Presley, visited the family of Mr. J. E. Hackett, of Denver, last Saturday and Sunday.

Still the tatters keep their fires before the public. Surely if there is a burning hell the people whose daily routine of business is to keep up an uproar in a community, and try to cause hard feelings between one person and another, will be back logs in the very hottest regions. "Thou shalt not lie."

Mr. Jacob Watkins, of Oconee, was in this section on business last week. Mr. Andrew Dye went to Georgia to see a "pet deer" last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brooks, of Oconee, are visiting their parents at the present writing.

On Sunday we had the pleasure of attending the all-day singing at Six and Twenty. Some of the best singing was done there that we have ever heard. The crowd was estimated at from 400 to 700. Everything passed off quietly and we all enjoyed the singing of Prof. Harbin, Willis, Eskow, Linderman and Mullins immensely. We hope to have these gentlemen with us again soon, for they are excellent singers.

Some of the boys of the S. E. corner of the Kingdom paid a flying visit to Fort Hill on their bicycles last Sunday. They report a pleasant trip.

Mr. John Gaillard and wife, of Flat Rock, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Gaillard, last Sunday.

Before you have heard of us again, Mr. Editor, "We, I, and Co." will have declared war against the hosts of Gen. Green and be fighting with all our might. Volunteers wanted. L. Esstr

Townville Items.

Mr. R. L. Leebetter, of near this place, had a severe hurt last week by falling from a horse.

Mr. W. H. Webb's little 11-month-old child caught cold while her parents were at the hotel and died on the 14th day last week. She was buried in the Townville Baptist Cemetery with services by Rev. Leebetter.

Miss Evelyn Kent, daughter of R. S. Kent, has been very sick, but we understand she is now better.

Miss Helen Spencer, of this place, has been very sick, but is now convalescing.

Mr. E. M. Bruce, of this place, has a very young child. His name is William Bryan.

Miss S. G. Bruce, of this place, has returned home from a "faded" visit to her father, Mr. W. W. Hunsent, near High Falls, Oconee County.

Miss Attie Major had some very interesting exercises—characters, tableaux, music, etc.—in her school at Double Springs last Friday night.

The Townville Baptist Church will perform in the Townville Old Academy next Friday night, the 22nd, and will divide the proceeds with the Baptist and Presbyterian Churches of this place.

Dr. J. T. C. Giles, of Georgia, is visiting his old home near this place at the present time. Dr. Giles is a well-made man, and deserves great credit for the time he has taken.

Little Lucile Johnson, daughter of S. R. Johnson, of this place, has been very sick, but we are glad to learn she is better.

Miss Elizabeth Bruce, living on Beaver Creek, Oconee, had a party and reunion of her family on the 14th of April, which was her 75th birthday.

Miss Bruce is the mother of eleven children, ten of whom are living, and she has fifty-six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren living. She was a widow in 1876, while a good part of her children were small, but she, with true Christian courage, raised her children and gave them all a fine English education.

Miss Bruce was the daughter of James R. Kent, who moved from the Nantux Creek section, below Anderson, and settled in the Park about 60 years ago.

She married Rev. C. P. Bruce in 1842, and her first husband died in 1848, leaving her a widow with two small children.

She joined the Baptist Church when she was 28 years old, under the preaching of Rev. J. L. Jennings, and has lived a devoted Christian ever since.

Mr. E. B. Webb, W. J. Campbell, H. D. Capell and Larry Marot, of Fair Play, attended Church here last Sunday.

Mr. Heskiah Hester, of sister, Hattie are spending a while with Mr. F. M. Bruce at this place.

Mr. D. A. Leebetter's wife and Miss Daisy Brown, of Anderson, are visiting relatives in Townville at the present time.

Old Roxie Dr. Boy.

Denver Items.

Notwithstanding constant and unceasing talk of war, we stop long enough to chronicle a few of the happenings around us.

First and foremost we congratulate our friend and neighbor, Mr. Thos. Webb, in that he has manifested his patriotism in advance, since two bounding boys (twins) came to his house last Sunday. These two last makes nice living boys now at home, and not a single girl.

Messrs. Jeff. Boggs and Walter Brown, of Central, S. C., visited in Denver last Sunday.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. Millam recovers very slowly from the serious hurt that she sustained a month ago.

A large congregation heard an able sermon from Rev. A. T. Dunlap last Sunday at Sandy Springs.

The second Quarterly Conference for Pentecost Circuit will be held at Sandy Springs on first Sunday in May.

We have now a very flourishing Sunday School at Welcome Church every Sabbath morning at 9:30 o'clock.

An Anderson Poet.

The pupils of certain grades in the Anderson Graded School are required to submit compositions on any subject of their own selection. Among those submitted two weeks ago was the following in verse, composed by Master Archie Cathcart, the 11 year old son of our townsman, Mr. J. M. Cathcart. Our little friend certainly displays fine talent, and Anderson may yet have a poet.

MY LITTLE SISTER—A TRUE STORY.
I have a little sister,
Her name is Emmie May;
She is just running over
With frolic, fun and play.

She gets into the safe,
And she gets into the sugar,
And sometimes think
She is a naughty little "boogay."

She spans her doll
For not wearing her bonnet,
Saying, "Just look on your face,
There is a lot of freckles on it."

She takes her doll and Kitty
To bed with her at night;
To see them sleeping side by side
Is such a pretty sight.

She gets up in the morning,
Her face so bright and fair,
My only little sister,
So precious, sweet and dear.

Corner Dots.

The A. R. Presbytery met at Genesee Church on Friday, 8th inst. We had the pleasure of hearing some very interesting sermons. On Saturday preceding Easter our four young daughters were deliberating, meditating, ruminating, cogitating and musing over their toilet for the occasion. On how their hearts ached when they found next morning dark clouds shifting over the sky.

Small grain promises well. A larger area has been sown than usual, and calamity befalls the crop, there will be seed for the sower and bread for the eater.

Miss Davis, from Troy, S. C., is visiting here. Miss L. L. of Milledgeville, I wonder what has become of our friend, "Fad"? I have not seen him for some time. Cheer up, Fad, "there are just as good a fish in the sea as have ever been caught on the hook."

Miss Mary Teasley and Nan McCurry, two of the most charming young girls of Hartwell, Ga., were the guests of Miss Nettie and Mattie Bowie Saturday and Sunday at this place.

Mr. J. P. Wilson, with his excellent mother, made a flying visit to Moffattville.

Mr. J. T. O'Barr, one of Hartwell's most popular young merchants, accompanied by Mr. Fred Richardson, a student of the Hartwell High School, attended the A. R. Presbytery on Sunday.

Mr. L. E. Bowie has purchased a new bicycle. I guess he will call on his best girl quite often now.

Mr. W. O. Bowie and charming little wife, from Annis, S. C., visited the "old folks at home" last Sunday.

Mr. Kees Watt is very sick at this writing. We sincerely hope he will soon be well again.

Miss Ellen Sheridan, who is attending school at Anderson Graded School, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Singing Convention.

The Anderson County Singing Convention will meet in its semi-annual session with Lebanon Church on Saturday before the first Sabbath in May next. The people are invited to come and engage in the service of song and encourage the exercises.
